CLASSIFICATION	INTELLOFAX 18	Approved For Fela Noto DF1 CA APE82-004 FB 0007 2	25X1 FW 36
COUNTRY Soviet Zone of Germany TOPIC Telzow Airfield EVALUATION			an use 1 > supple
EVALUATION See below PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT. 3 and 19 June 1950 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X X1 1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes and some biplanes were standing at the Selzev (N 522/A flights, which apparently were for training. Fotor vehicles 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers londed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. X125X1C  Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	COUNTRY 307	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
DATE OF CONTENT. 3 and 19 June 1950 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X X1 1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Velzov (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Motor vehicles X1 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers londed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. X1 X1 X1 Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	TOPIC	zow Airfield
DATE OF CONTENT. 3 and 19 June 1950 ERFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a type) REMARKS 25X X1 1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Melzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Motor vehicles the entrance to the field. 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 psm. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C  Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 31 July 1950 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 25X 1 in About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Melzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Motor vehicles 1 the entrance to the field. 2 Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Hight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. 1 Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	EVALUATION	Gee below PLACE OBTAINED	2!
DATE OPTAINED DATE PREPARED 31 July 1950 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) REMARKS 25X X1 1. about thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Jelzov (N 52/4 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Enter vehicles 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers lended at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C  Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The proviously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	DATE OF CONTE	NT 3 and 19 June 1950	2
REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) 25X	DATE OBTAINED	DATE PREPARED 31 July 1950
About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Welzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights. which apparently were for training. Motor vehicles the entrance to the field. 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers lended at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.
About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Welzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights. which apparently were for training. Motor vehicles the entrance to the field. 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	PAGES 1	ENGLOCHES (NO & TYPE)
25X 1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Welzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Motor vehicles 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers lended at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.			And the second s
About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Velzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Loter vehicles the entrance to the field. 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	REMARKS		·
About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Velzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Loter vehicles the entrance to the field. 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.
1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Jelzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Loter vehicles 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.	Correlated Colonia Col
1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Jelzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Loter vehicles 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.
1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Welzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights, which apparently were for training. Botor vehicles 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds. (125X1C * Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.
1. About thirty twin-engine planes with double rudder assembly, and some biplanes were standing at the Melzow (N 52/A 44) airfield on 3 June 1950. * The biplanes made local flights. which apparently were for training. Notor vehicles the entrance to the field. 2. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the eastern edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bombers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. A plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards. The ground take-off run lasted 27 seconds.  Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.			25X1
* Comment. The statements on the occupation of the field which were supplied by two sources are approximately the same. The previously reported occupation by one bomber regiment is confirmed.		the entrance to the field. Twenty-eight twin-engine bombers were standing at the edge of the field on 19 June 1950. * Eight twin-engine bers landed at the field between 12:12 and 12:20 p.m. plane of the same type took off shortly afterwards.	seen at eastern ine bom-
	⁽¹ 25X1C *	Comment. The statements on the occupation of field which were supplied by two sources are approximathe same. The previously reported occupation by one	ately
•	K1
•
		•

